

WEST MORE LAND CULTURAL TRUST

is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization whose mission is to be a conduit for communities to thrive. We do so by welcoming broad forms of artistic expression, forging purposeful partnerships, and programming meaningful arts education and engagement activities.

Venues & Properties Managed by WCT

The Stark Block

Originally built as a hotel in 1889, the office buildings are now renovated and well-suited for productive use.

The Union Trust Building

This historic Greensburg structure rich in local heritage was built in 1921.

The Palace Theatre

Opened in 1926 as the Manos Theatre, The Palace is still a stunning, historic entertainment venue to this day. From concerts and comedy, to theatre, dance, family entertainment, and more, The Palace entertains more than 85,000 patrons at 100+ events each year.

Greensburg Garden & Civic Center

Founded in 1969, it is a versatile, multi-purpose facility used by more than 90 different organizations annually. Its venue includes an auditorium, a large lawn and lanai, guest space for up to 200, gallery wallspace, and a roof and penthouse area with a spectacular view.

Why Become a Corporate Partner?

WESTMORELAND CULTURAL TRUST exists because of you and your cultural needs. Earned ticket revenue and commercial rental income only make up approximately 70% of our overall annual budget. Our free mission-based engagement programming (such as Rhythms of Summer, Greensburg ArtsWalk, and Art in the Alley) as well as our tuition-based education programming (like Broadway to The Palace) require significant subsidies.

As a nonprofit, we rely on generous community support to fulfill our mission and purposefully serve you. With a one-time gift or recurring donation to WCT, you contribute to the artistic tapestry of our community.

YOUR GIFT SUPPORTS:

- Education and Engagement programs that serve over 10,000 community residents annually.
- Free community events and exhibitions like Rhythms of Summer, Greensburg ArtsWalk, and Art in the Alley.
- Continued stewardship of the historical Palace Theatre, Greensburg Garden & Civic Center, and the Stark/James building.
- Arts and cultural access to historically under-served communities.
- Superior arts and entertainment programming.

Event Activation

Corporate partners receive the benefit of activation at select events throughout the year. Activation can include fliers, giveaways, activities, and more! Promote your business as a supporter of the arts within the Westmoreland County community.

ACTIVATION TABLES AVAILABLE FROM APRIL THROUGH OCTOBER

EVENTS INCLUDE:

- Greensburg ArtsWalk
- Rhythms of Summer Concert Series
- Greensburg Music Fest
- Petrifying Palace
